

do not allow use of personal cell phones in flite it is already a safety issue on the ground before take off and after landing no one is aware of their surroundings in the cabin and before and after takeoff are the most crucial times of a flight we need your help to insure public's safety.